

LACE 'EM UP HOOPS

At Malvern Prep

PRESIDENT'S DAY - Feb 20th, 2012 - 9am to 2pm

Kids off from School ? Need something for them to do?

In an effort to teach the game of basketball at the grass-roots level, HEAD COACH JIM RULLO is offering a full day basketball clinic on President's Day for those players from 2nd to 8th grade (boys and girls) who have an interest in improving their individual basketball skills. ALL LEVELS OF PLAY ARE WELCOME!

The program will:

- Teach the game of basketball the right way.
- Have players learn the critical fundamentals both on an individual and team basis.
- Challenge players with detailed work-outs that are taught at the NCAA Division I level.
- Realize player's individual potential.

WHERE: MALVERN PREP - O'NEILL CENTER

WHEN: President's Day --- Monday - Feb 20th

TIME: 9am to 2pm

FEE: $70

Come on out and attend the ALL DAY BASKETBALL CLINIC at Malvern Prep where the facilities are second to none and the instruction is designed for all ages/talent level. Players bring own lunches.

As always, my best marketing and promotion comes from the players that have gone through our clinics in the past.

Feel free to contact me with any questions.
